

An aerial night photograph of Miniloc Island. On the left, a wooden dock with warm-toned lights extends into the dark water. Three large, illuminated, pinkish-brown structures, resembling giant umbrellas or canopies, are arranged in a diagonal line from the dock towards the center. In the middle of the water, two kayakers are visible, illuminated by a bright light source, possibly a spotlight or a very bright light from the shore. The water is dark blue, and the overall scene is serene and mysterious.
