MORVEDRA NOU

Nestled within the Macarella Natural Park, Morvedra Nou is a traditional Menorcan agricultural estate; a lloc dating back to around 1650. For centuries, it was dedicated to farming and livestock, with crops, grazing, and local production. In 1998, it was transformed into a rural hotel, becoming one of the first to receive a license in Menorca, setting a precedent in converting agricultural environments into sustainable hospitality destinations. The property spans 75 hectares, where century-old olive groves, natural trails, and native vegetation coexist with historical remnants.

The Rooms

An exclusive retreat where history blends seamlessly with modern comfort. Designed by Virginia Nieto, the former stables have been transformed into 26 rooms, preserving the original structure while incorporating special features and natural materials that evoke a sense of calm. In every room, luxury is expressed through simplicity, silence, and attention to detail.

Gastronomy

The cuisine at Morvedra Nou blends Mediterranean tradition with avant-garde creativity, celebrating Menorca's authentic flavors and natural essence. Led by chef José María Borrás — Best Young Chef of Spain and Portugal 2025 and nominee for Revelation Chef at Madrid Fusión 2026 — it reflects a new generation of Menorcan gastronomy: innovative, rooted, and in perfect harmony between contemporary technique and local tradition.

Experiences

Morvedra Nou enjoys the privilege of being located in a restricted-access area, making it an exclusive starting point for those wishing to explore the island's endless array of experiences and activities. Just 10 minutes from the coast, this enclave combines sea and countryside, offering adventurous visitors the perfect setting to enjoy an idyllic stay. The hotel offers exclusive experiences designed to help you relax within the hotel, as well as others that will allow you to discover the magic of Menorca.
