SUSTAINABILITY begins with the community

- Cultural Preservation

We preserve and celebrate local culture and traditions through the 90 local hire practice, and a showcase of Cuyunon culture and products.

- Ecosystem Restoration

We organize projects that restore and protect local ecosystems, such as mangrove protection, coral reef monitoring, declaration of recreation-only sites.

- Creating Shared Value

El Nido Resorts supports local business and advocates for local purchasing, provides training and employment opportunities, and contributes community infrastructure.

An underwater photograph with a deep blue color palette. In the center, a large, craggy rock formation rises from the seabed. To the right of the rock, two divers are visible in silhouette, swimming horizontally. The water is clear, with some light rays visible near the surface. The overall mood is serene and adventurous.
