

Palacio Santa Cristina

LUXURY COUNTRY HOUSE AND PRIVATE ESTATE

____Weddings & Events____

Welcome to Palacio Santa Cristina

A very special estate located southwest of Spain, at the heart of Extremadura that will allow you to live a unique experience, to enjoy wild nature in pure state and to celebrate an unforgettable event.

On the top of a hill within a large estate of cork and holm oaks of around 17.000 hectares, you will find an unforgettable private place to celebrate your most special party or exclusive event far from the noise. Lavender gardens, terraces suspended over the land and hidden corners under centenary trees will make a unique space to enjoy with family and friends.

Staying within the newly refurbished palace, full of details and character, you will enjoy the luxury and comfort of a country house that will make you feel like at your own home in front of our fireplaces.

The Lodge

Enjoy the full experience of having the entire property strictly private, discover every corner of a gorgeous estate with 11 bedrooms and diverse living rooms, lounge bar, dining room and verandas, a place ideal to host 25 people. Many other guests can be easily accommodated in the nearby towns.

The Event

All events are different and every person experiences our estate on a personal way, close to nature and with the total privacy that the lodge offers. We make our best effort to meet the requirements of every client with total discretion and a very personal service. Either large parties or more private and personal celebrations, we will adapt our estate to the event's particular needs.

Gastronomy

Our food services are based on maximum quality product at every season and our chefs elaborate different daily menus with local product and adapting to every particular event.

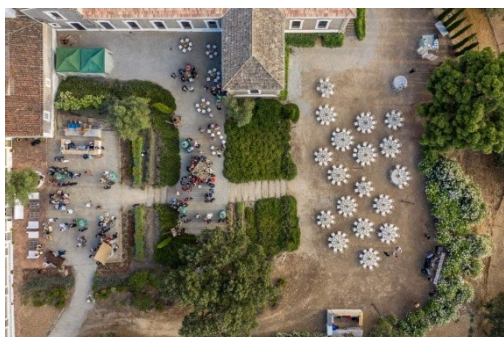

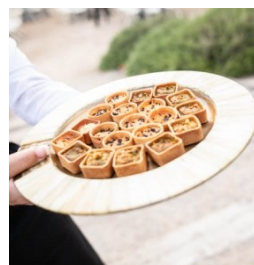

For large parties and weddings, we work together with top catering companies to offer a very flexible selection of dishes with diverse options and format where to choose from. Wines and liquors are a very important part in our gastronomy, offering from our cellar a great variety of wines from top winemakers in the world.

We have several types of celebrations, from long cocktails also with diverse side tables, formal services for long meals and anything in between. Iberico products, the most popular product of this region, are always present at our events, including a professional cutter that will delight every guest.

The open bar after the main event can also be available until the time desired from the guest under request, together with some appetizers for the party to continue.
