

LAGEN
EL NIDO

Experience the new Lagen – an island paradise in Bacuit Bay unveiled following a sweeping transformation. Surrounded by lush forests, limestone cliffs, and clear turquoise waters, it offers a perfect blend of serene beauty and quiet luxury.

One of the island destinations 430 kilometers southwest of Manila, it is among the El Nido-Taytay Managed Resource Protected Area. It boasts of a thriving ecosystem of diverse flora and fauna, making it the perfect getaway to reconnect with self, loved ones, and with nature.

Lagen's thoughtful redesign features 42 curated Forest Rooms and Water Villas, restoring more of the natural island and creating space and opportunities for inspired connection within a renewed eco-sanctuary.

Embark on a unique island retreat where guests can enjoy a stay that celebrates Filipino culture and tradition, while relaxing on a luxurious getaway focused on transformative discovery.

GETTING HERE

- * Travel to the major hubs of the Philippines by daily flights from most Asian and international cities: Manila, Bohol, Clark, and Cebu.
- * From these four major hubs, guests may choose to fly directly to El Nido's Lio Airport via private flights with our Chartered Airline partners or direct commercial flights with Cebu Pacific. Flight time ranges between 50 to 90 minutes each way.
- * Scheduled land and boat transfers from Lio Airport to Lagen and back are available daily. Refreshments and local snacks are available at the El Nido Resorts Jetty Lounge.
