CONTACT

A place where privacy, nature and personal hospitality come together in a way that feels quietly exceptional.

A peaceful mountain setting, within easy reach of Palma and the island's main connections.

Mallorca, closer than expected

We keep the soul of a traditional Mallorcan finca with the sensitivity of a deeply personal retreat.

A hidden house in the Tramuntana

Every corner has its own rhythm.
Every space, its own quiet gesture.

A house with a soul.

Time, naturally yours

THE GUEST EXPERIENCE

The island, at your own rhythm

Quiet adventures, shaped around each guest and arranged personally by the team.

A DAY AT THE SEA

A private sailing day along the coast - quiet coves, lunch on board and the Tramuntana seen from the water.

THE TRAMUNTANA ON FOOT

Guided walks that begin at the finca's own door - olive groves, dry-stone paths and mountain silence.

E-BIKE ROUTES

Circular routes through Moscari, Selva and Binibona, mapped by the team, with the house always within reach.

ON HORSEBACK

The Ruta dels Cavalls - vineyards, sleepy villages and the Tomir on the horizon.

WINE AND VINEYARDS

Private tastings at the house and visits to the island's quieter bodegas.

THE TABLE

Paella by the pool, cooking with the chef, and dinners at Mirabona under the evening light.

Alongside yoga, spa rituals and the simple luxury of doing nothing at all.

Mirabona.
The taste of the finca.

Food with origin. Flavour without artifice. A table that belongs to the place.

Farm to table destination restaurant

The private villa.
Your own house in the mountains

Wellbeing, naturally

A softer way to pause. A quieter way to reconnect.
A place that lets the body find its own rhythm.

Caring without invading. Anticipating without showing.
Letting every guest find their own rhythm.

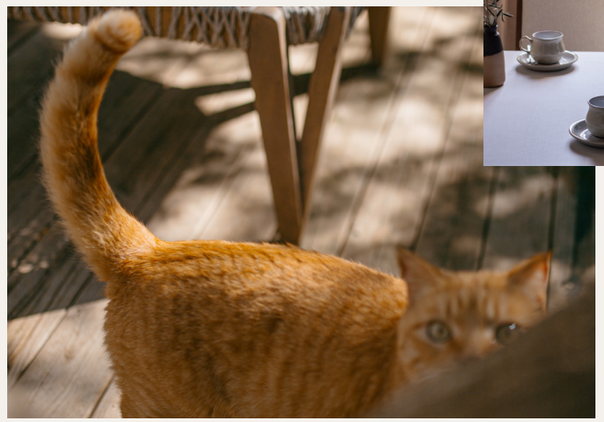

The People behind the magic.

At Ca'n Beneït, service is never scripted. It is personal, intuitive and quietly present.

The team knows when to appear, when to step back and how to make every guest feel naturally cared for, without formality or distance.

WHAT MAKES THE EXPERIENCE DIFFERENT:

- Care without intrusion
- Attention without noise
- Natural warmth
- Small gestures at the right moment
- Personal recommendations
- The feeling of being known, not managed

Trusted by the luxury travel community

Ca'n Beneït is recognised by selected platforms and communities that value meaningful hospitality, character and a strong sense of place.
